Today, Google unveiled their latest technology: AdWords for TV and AdSense for TV. This totally blows my mind. They are about to totally revolutionize the television industry.

You can manage TV ads just like you manage AdWords ads for the web. You enter the amount you're willing to pay per impression, and your daily budget, and Google does the rest.

Google is the future of all advertizing. NBC, be afraid.

From Google:

The results were extraordinary. Web traffic to ooVoo.com increased by 500% and ooVoo-related search queries rose by more than 200% over pre-campaign levels."

- Lisa Abourezk, VP of marketing, ooVoo
